d. Introductions of new reps

- i. Scott Straka - girls basketball: Scott has a son in 7th, and daughters in 5th and 2nd. All of them play basketball and several other sports
- ii. Pam James - softball: Pam has 4 daughters between college and 6th grade
- iii. Mike Richardson: Mike will be one of the new boys soccer reps after the season is over and Nikki and Michaela step down, as their boys are both seniors.

iv. Other rep updates:

1. Amy Orban will be joining as the other boys soccer rep.
2. Megan Schwalen will be stepping down as a girls cross country rep, after track season coach Brown will find a replacement.

B. Committee Reports

a. Athletics Report – Rod Wiebers, Activities Director

Spring sports are off to a successful start!

- Golf - Boys won 1st at Dutch Masters, a 36 hole tournament in Pella
- Track - had to cancel the Hugh Norman coed meet due to weather
 - 3A schools invited to Jim Duncan Relays at Drake on 4/15
 - Conference meet is in Carroll this year
 - Looking towards several events to qualify for Drake Relays
- Soccer - has also dealt with some crappy weather...

Brevin Doll - committed to Iowa football. Rod shared how they do signing day events at ADM.

May 1st summer sports of Baseball and Softball officially start.

Cheerleading and Dance tryouts just completed.

Middle school baseball coaching positions are almost filled, still could use an assistant.

The Facilities Master Planning committee has proposed building a new High school. Also being discussed is practice track and fields, weight facilities, wrestling room, and baseball/softball complex.

b. Financial - Carl Duffy: reviewed current balance and reminded reps to have coaches spend the approved requests.

c. Apparel - Gretchen Rickert:

- i. Working with Game One for an apparel order.
- ii. Planning an apparel table at the Girls HS Track meet on April 25th

d. Business Updates - Ryan Case

- i. Gambling License status - have in hand!
- ii. Coaches Requests status - Booster Club has paid school for approved purchases completed so far and we are still under budget.
 - Bonus money must be spent by August 1st, Ryan will send out a spreadsheet sharing the status of what remains.

- iii. State Rewards: Reps of spring sports reminded how Booster Club will provide meal money and a t-shirt for all athletes who qualify for state competitions. Note the signs with student names put up are not provided by the Booster Club.
- iv. Tiger Athletic Club (Girls Youth basketball) donated $1,000 to the gym improvement fund.

C. New Items / Open Discussion

- a. Upcoming Event Planning (Gretchen)
 - i. Golf tournament - 3rd Friday of June, the 16th at River Valley Golf Course. Gretchen will get a flyer finalized and work with Ryan to have the website signup ready.
 - ii. Sweet Corn Festival - Have signed up for a vendor spot, also plan to participate in the parade again. Think about ordering custom items to throw out soon.
 - iii. Tiger Fest - anticipating this will be Thursday, September 14th depending on Homecoming
 - iv. Membership Drive - tentatively planning for Tuesday, August 22rd
- b. Next Meeting rescheduled for June 4th. As the May meeting falls on the same day of graduation.

D. Meeting Adjourns

- a. 6:31 Ben Madison motioned to adjourn, second by Anne Heitz
